

SONS AND DAUGHTERS IN TOUCH

AMERICA'S GOLD STAR CHILDREN
FROM THE VIETNAM WAR

EST. 1989

Sons and Daughters In Touch (SDIT) was established in 1989 to locate, unite and support the Gold Star Sons and Daughters of American servicemen who were killed - or remain missing - while serving in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War.

SDIT envisions a future where the lessons of previous wars help provide better care and support for Gold Star Families.

Honor In Action:

- Honor the Fallen
- Connect Gold Star Families
- Promote wellness
- Uplift Veterans
- Impact Communities
- Uphold the Gold Star Designation

Serving Gold Star Families, POW/MIA Families, Veterans, and the Military community across the nation.

Since 1989, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial has served as the 'family tree' uniting the Gold Star Families from the Vietnam War.

SDIT provides care, community and connections to Gold Star Families and Veterans.

For more than three decades, SDIT and Vietnam Veterans have forged an unprecedented bond of "Welcome Home!"

With the support of Vietnam Veterans, in 2003, SDIT led the largest-ever Gold Star Pilgrimage to Vietnam.

BY THE NUMBERS:

More than 20,000

American children lost their fathers during the Vietnam War.

92 %

of America's Gold Star Families were awarded the distinction from wars and conflicts occurring prior to 9/11.

1,567
SERVICEMEN

and Civilians have yet to be accounted for from the Vietnam War.
